The Twentieth

Sunday of Ordinary Time

Introduction:

Jesus was well known around Jerusalem and in Galilee, so sometimes he made trips to places outside Palestine, where the people did not know him. On one of these trips, Jesus met a Canaanite woman and was struck by the strength of her belief.

OPENING PRAYER

Light a Candle and have the children read
the following prayer:

As we light the candles today, we pray that the light of Jesus will keep shining in our lives and showing us the way.

Amen.

GOSPEL:

MATTHEW 15:21-28

Jesus went to stay near the cities of Tyre and Sidon, where few people knew him. One day a Canaanite woman came to him and cried, “Help me, Jesus! My daughter’s mind is disturbed, and she is very ill!”

Jesus did not answer the woman, and she carried on crying aloud and begging him to help.

The disciples were embarrassed by the shouting and asked Jesus to help her, but Jesus said, “I have been sent to the Jewish people and not the pagans.” Then turning to the woman he said, “Surely you would not give the food meant for children to the dog?” The woman threw herself at his feet and answered, “No sir, but even the dogs get the crumbs that their masters drop from the table!”

Then Jesus smiled and said, “Your belief is strong, and your daughter is well!” From that moment on the woman’s daughter was cured.

Discussion

Do you know what a Canaanite is?

A Canaanite was a person from Canaan, who still practiced the old religion which existed in the country before the Jewish religion.

What did the Canaanite woman want from Jesus? And what did he do?

At first it seemed that Jesus would not help her because he had been sent to bring his message to the Jewish people, not the pagans. But Jesus was struck by the strength of her belief in him and helped her.
