The Second Sunday of Lent

Introduction:

Abraham was a good man, and like Noah, he had complete faith and trust in God. God put this trust to the test when he asked Abraham to kill his son Isaac.

OPENING PRAYER

Light a Candle and say this together:

The path to our heavenly father is like the rising sun, getting brighter and brighter as we draw closer to God. People who turn away from his love follow a path as dark as the night, and they stumble and fall because they cannot see the way.

(Proverbs 4:18-19)

GOSPEL:

Genesis 22:1-13

God said to Abraham: “Take your son, Isaac, to the top of the mountain and offer him as a sacrifice to me.”

Abraham loved Isaac very much, but he trusted God completely and was ready to obey. He loaded his donkey with wood and set off to the mountain God had shown him. On the way, Isaac asked his father, “Where is the lamb you will sacrifice?” Abraham answered him, “God will provide the lamb.”

When they arrived, they built an altar and piled it high with wood. Then Abraham tied Isaac’s hands and feet and took out a knife, ready to kill his only son.

Suddenly a voice from heaven said, “Abraham, Abraham, do not kill the son you love so much. Your trust and love for me was so great that you were ready to sacrifice your only son for my sake.” Looking up, Abraham noticed a ram whose horns were tangled in a torn bush. He offered the ram as a sacrifice to God in place of his precious son. Isaac.

Discussion

God asked Abraham to sacrifice his only son, Isaac. How do you think Abraham must have felt?

Abraham and his wife Sarah were already old when Isaac was born, so he was particularly precious to them. Abraham must have felt very sad indeed, but his faith and trust in God were so great that he was ready to do anything God asked.

Let's Pray Together

For all of those working to keep us safe.

For all of those who are sick.

For God to keep us and those we love safe.

And, for anything for which you want to pray.
(Pause to give your child time to pray)

We pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

CLOSING PRAYER

Lord, give us the faith and
Courage of Abraham
To do whatever you might ask of us.
Make our trust and love for you
Grow stronger each day.
We ask this through Jesus Christ,
Our Lord.

Amen.

HAVE A GREAT DAY!

SEE YOU NEXT WEEK!
