~ Pastor's Note ~

Next weekend, Rev. Paul Morana Sandi will be visiting our parish and celebrating the weekend Masses. He will be speaking on behalf of the annual Archdiocesan Mission Appeal which will be taken up as a second collection on the weekend of July 23rd & 24th. I will be concelebrating the Masses with Fr. Paul. He is a priest of The Diocese of Bo in Sierra Leone in the Province of West Africa. Please join me in welcoming Fr. Paul to our parish.

Seminarian Pascal Atunzu completes his Summer assignment here at Holy Family next weekend, July 23rd & 24th. I have enjoyed getting to know Pascal and like yourselves, have been impressed by his faith and dedication to his formation in preparing to serve the people of God as a priest. In addition, when I was away on vacation and on retreat, Pascal took very good care of my cat Suzie, thus being the first seminarian to whom I have entrusted her.

This August Pascal will begin his senior year at Catholic University while attending St. Pope John Paul II Seminary. When he has breaks from college seminary, I have invited him to come back to visit us here at Holy Family.

Blessings!

16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CARING FOR CREATION: I am so excited! Tuesday morning we finally had our first monarch butterfly visit our garden. We have planted milkweed plants which are host plants to the monarch butterfly. They are so beautiful and bring so much joy to our family.

In addition, we are seeing so many baby birds this year. The parents bring the fledglings to our birdfeeders and show them how to feed themselves. Sometimes they have to give them a little bit of food so they know what they're getting into. We have seen Bluebirds, Carolina Wrens, Cardinals, House Finches and others. It's like they're showing off their baby's to us. I do a couple zoom meetings a day so I'm sitting there watching the feeders for an hour in the morning and an hour in the afternoon. It's just marvelous to watch Mother Earth in all her glory.

Please don't forget the snacks for kids that goes with the grocery bags from OLPH and Mt. Zion BREAKFAST CLUB Interfaith Ministry. We deliver food directly to those in need. A blessing for everything you all do.

Environmental question, email me at christophergordon@verizon.net and I'll do my best to answer it.

DEACON DOUG'S Q & A: What is the difference between a sacrament and a sacramental?

Answer to last week's question about the Council of Nicea as "The Gettysburg of Christianity": Nicea (325 AD) was the first Ecumenical Council held after the official toleration of Christianity by the new Emperor Constantine. Attended by bishops from throughout the empire, many who had suffered during a recent violent persecution, it resolved the very serious issue of the divinity of Christ, which had been denied by very powerful heretical force known as Arianism. If the Arians had won, Christianity would have eventually been reduced to a philosophy, the faith today defined by the Nicene Creed (which we pray every Sunday).

THE KNIGHTS LADIES are once again collecting spare/used/unused eyeglasses for the Lions Club. Since 1925, their mission is to prevent avoidable blindness and improve quality of life for Any and all glasses you may have taking storage space in your dresser will be welcome. Many people will be blessing you for their new ability to "look" at the world or see a loved one's face. Look for the basket on the Baker's Rack in the Upper Gallery or leave at the Parish Office.

Matter of Perspective

Three priests sat discussing the best positions for prayer while a telephone repairman worked nearby.

"Kneeling is definitely best," claimed one.

"No," another contended. "I get the best results standing with my hands outstretched to Heaven."

"You're both wrong," the third insisted. "The most effective prayer position is lying prostrate, face down on the floor."

The repairman could contain himself no longer. "Hey, fellas," he interrupted, "the best prayin' I ever did was hangin' upside down from a telephone pole."
